

Speculators are calling for a degree of liquidity that is not there in the market

The diagram features a series of wavy arrows positioned above the text. There are 10 black wavy arrows pointing downwards to the words 'Speculators', 'are', 'calling', 'for', 'a', 'degree', 'of', 'liquidity', 'that', and 'is'. Additionally, there are 3 red wavy arrows pointing downwards to the words 'that', 'is', and 'not'. A red dashed curved arrow originates from the word 'that' and points back to the word 'degree'.
